STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Site of "Chantilly," the home from c. 1757 to 1794 of Richard Henry Lee, a Signer of the Declaration of Independence for Virginia, planter, politician, President of the Continental Congress, and a United States Senator. The plantation house is no longer standing.

Brief Sketch of the Life of Richard Henry Lee, 1732-1794

Richard Henry Lee, the 7th of 11 children, was born at the Lee family seat, "Stratford," Westmoreland County, Virginia, on January 20, 1732, the son of a wealthy planter. He received his elementary education from tutors and was sent to England to complete his education. Finishing his course at the academy at Wakefield in Yorkshire in 1751, he probably returned to "Stratford" in 1752.

In 1757 Lee married Anne Aylett, daughter of William Aylett of Westmoreland County, and about this time, and prior to 1762, established his residence at "Chantilly," located about three miles east of "Stratford," on an estate which he leased from his eldest brother. His first wife died in 1768, leaving four children. Lee married Mrs. Anne Pinchard, widow of Thomas Pinchard and daughter of Colonel Thomas Gaskins, in 1769. There were five children by his second marriage.

In 1757, as justice of the peace for Westmoreland County, Lee first entered public life. From 1758 to 1775 he was also elected to the House of Burgesses as a representative from Westmoreland County. In the Virginia legislature he obtained a position of considerable influence and working closely with Patrick Henry and Thomas Jefferson, did much to forward the radical and revolutionary cause. Lee served in the Continental Congress from 1774 to 1779. Lee's influence in the Virginia Convention of May 15, 1775 led to that State's famous resolution calling for independence, foreign alliances, and a confederation of the colonies. Lee redrafted these resolutions in a more compact form and presented them to the Continental Congress on June 7, 1776.

Lee resigned his seat in Congress in May 1779 because of ill health. From 1780 to 1784 he was a member of the Virginia House of Delegates; from 1784 to 1787 he was again a delegate to the Continetal Congress, and in 1784 served as its president for a period of one year. Lee was chosen as a delegate to the Constitutional Convention of 1787 but refused to attend. He led the opposition in Congress against the adoption of the new Constitution, saying that it lacked a bill of rights. In 1789 Lee was chosen as a Virginia Senator in the new United States Government and he worked to see that the Bill of Rights was added to the Constitution. In October 1792, broken in health, Lee resigned from the U.S.Senate and retired to "Chantilly," where he died on June 19, 1794. He was buried in the Lee family burial ground near Hague, Westmoreland County.
